As you graduate into this space age you will be faced with problems no other senior class has ever faced. You must be better prepared than ever before. In spite of what commencement speakers will tell you, life will be no bed of roses. You will have to work hard just to keep even and harder yet to get ahead. Success will go only to those who are best prepared and work hardest.

In face of these challenges always remember to do a little more than you are required to do in your job.

Best of wishes.

Dedication

To one who is always willing to lend a helping hand when it is needed . . . who seems to understand us and has a great deal of patience with us . . . who gives so unselfishly of her time and talents . . . who counsels and guides us--be it as a class or an individual . . . to the one who possesses all of these qualities and many, many more too numerous to mention, we the class of '63 dedicate our annual in our deep appreciation and gratitude.

As We

Sandi Walker is quite pert,
Around the boys she does flirt.

When Bill Morrison goes to work
Not one task does he shirk.

Christine Sharp is a grand majorette
But one of those boys will get her yet.

Denny Hansford is a smiling boy,
He brings to Charlotte lots of joy.

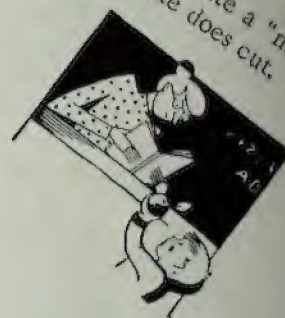

Joyce Ryder is always on the go
Especially with Larry Joe.

Richard Morgan is quite a "nut",
All of his classes he does cut.

Karen Galford is our year book editor;
Paul Workman is always seen with her.

Paul Workman is slim and tall
His favorite sport is basketball.

Linda Malcomb a lively girl
Puts the boys in a whirl.

Don Jackson, who has curly hair,
Walks about with quite an air.

Barbara Hannah is quiet and shy,
She lets all the boys go by.

A star farmer is Blix McNeill,
He'll make his farm on "Buckeye Hill."

Shall Be

Delmos Barb is an all around boy
He's the Senior Class's pride and joy.

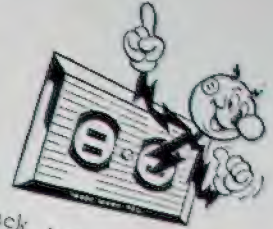

Don Circosta is the class delight
With Miss Dean he does always fight.

Judy Geiger, who has red hair,
Drives Herb's car everywhere.

Sam McCarty, who always does his best
Has set an example for all the rest.

J. R. Dunbrack, a small, short lad,
Really drives that car of his like "mad."

Charlotte Reed is light indeed
But more proposals she does not need.

Carolyn Vandevender is the quiet kind
When you see Sidney, she's not far behind.

Fat Sharp who was once a Gay,
Beside her "hubby" she'll always stay.

Beth Kellogg sews a fine seam
She is always on the beam.

Effie Underwood is small and petite,
We all think she is very sweet.

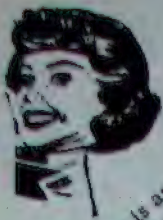

Sondra Nelson, we would say
Was the star of the senior play.

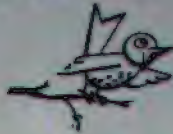

Sue Sparks is tall and strong
She says she won't be a "Sparks" very long.

Remembered

Allie Shelton, who is as cute as a bug,
Could trample the boys like fleas in a rug.

Mr. Miller, whom we call Clark
Thinks that life is but a lark.

Clarence Tyree is a happy guy,
It won't be long till the stork comes by.

William Perry is known as Billy
Whenever he's seen he's acting silly.

Brenda Galford, an industrious gal,
Would make anyone a real fine pal.

Jerry Sharp is quite a chap
For him, in football, we did clap.

Ronnie Cleek, who drives a blue car
Really thinks he's quite a star.

Harold VanReenen, known as "Hum"
Would make anyone quite a chum.

Diane Wooddell Buzzard, we all agree,
Has already received her M. R. S. Degree.

Herman Thomas is very hip,
He knows every latest dance step.

David Galford, a friendly, jolly lad
Seems to be driving all the girls mad.

Sue Withers is a cute little trick
And to the team she will surely stick.

Tomorrow

Phyllis Friel is our pin-up queen
A prettier girl you have never seen.

Doug Sharp, who is lean and lank
Has made several trips to Green Bank.

Harry Kelley, a football star,
We all believe that he'll go far.

Kermit Friel, who lives on a farm,
Has lots of poise and charm.

Charlotte Lovelace is blue-eyed and blonde
Of the Gum boy she is very fond.

We heard David Lovelace say,
"I hate to work but love to play!"

Betty Mann is a freckled lass
She makes good grades in every class.

Linda Sharp is quite sincere,
We all think that she's a dear.

Joan that never makes a fuss
As a basketball player she rates "A plus."

We hear Brenda D. Sharp has nailed Ray
And with him she will always stay.

Class

In the year 1959 eighty-one "green freshmen" entered the halls of Marlinton High School. We were so scared it took us all year to get settled, and to help us we chose the following leaders:
Karen Galford-President
Richard Morgan-Vice President
Paul Workman-Secretary
Sandy Anderson-Treasurer
We finally made it through the initiation and the rest of the year with the help of Mr. Wooddeil and Mrs. Killingsworth.

We entered our sophomore year a whole lot wiser and with a great feeling of superiority as we got to do the initiating this year. The seniors were our idols and we couldn't wait to be in their shoes. To get us there, we chose Richard Morgan as our President; Paul Workman, Vice President; Blix McNeill, Secretary; Delmos Barb, Treasurer. We cannot, however, take all the credit. Without Mr. Brill and Mrs. Currence we probably wouldn't be much farther along the way. We were really looking forward to summer vacation that year because the subjects seemed to be getting harder.

History

Our junior year was one of our busiest. We were more composed and confident than ever before. The officers we selected that year were: Paul Workman, President; Richard Morgan, Vice President; Delmos Barb, Secretary; Blix McNeill, Treasurer. Mrs. Moore and Mr. Francis McElwee were our sponsors. It was during this year that many of us received our class rings. Our first big thrill as upperclassmen was presenting the class play, "Mama" directed by Mrs. Moore. Other activities included the junior-senior banquet and that memorable junior prom.

The year we had all been waiting for had finally arrived. We were now THE SENIORS! With Blix McNeill as President, Richard Morgan as Vice President, Sue Withers as Secretary, and Sandy Anderson as Treasurer we began the last year of preparation for the game of life. With the help of Mr. Charles McElwee and Mrs. Bailey, our sponsors, and Miss Ruckman, our yearbook advisor, we worked on the senior play, our own Marlintonian, the selection of our colleges and jobs, and the many other worries we thought were more important than anyone else's. There are few of us looking forward to summer vacation this year because we know that we will never again be a part of the joyous events of the high school years. Although we got on the teachers' nerves more than any other class, we feel there will never be another quite like it. We know that these years have been the best of our lives and we will always be grateful to those who have pushed us on and made it possible for us to graduate in this most important year, 1963, the year of the West Virginia Centennial. Before we go we wish to say:

Thanks to all the teachers
Who, we know, have had no rest;
We're very glad you "hounded" us
And made us do our best.

Although because of homework
We sometimes made a fuss;
There'll never be a greater class
In all the world to us.

Office Staff

Mrs. Friel, Secretary; Sandy Anderson; Sondra Nelson; Mr. Yeager, Principal; Phyllis Friel; Beth Kellogg; Sue Withers; and Carolyn Vandervender.

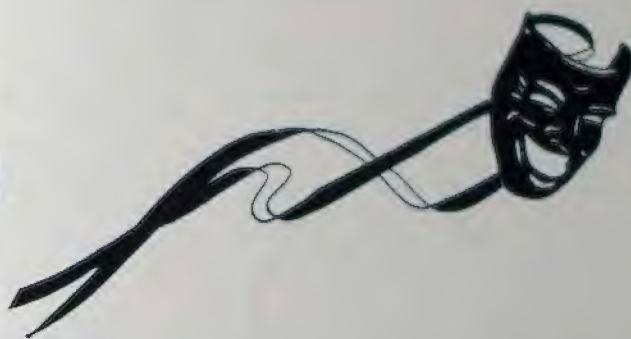

These girls help Mr. Yeager find who and what, when and where needed.

Speech Class

Delmos Barb, Sue Withers, Paul Workman, Beth Kellogg, Lola Perrin, Robert Jackson, Herman Thomas, Miss Jane Ruckman, Cheryl McNeill, Don Jackson, Brenda Kellison, and Sue Sparks.

These students study drama, interpretative reading, group discussion, debating, and other speech activities.

Scene from "A Thanksgiving Prank" given in assembly.

"I Remember Mama"

Director
MRS. ALICE MOORE

K. Galford, B. McNeill, C. Miller, B. Mann, S. Nelson, D. Sharp, C. Reed, P. Friel, B. Morrison, B. Galford, D. Barb, B. Sharp, P. Sharp, J. Tacy, S. Anderson, P. Workman, S. Withers, B. T. Galford, B. Kellogg, J. R. Dunbrack, C. Sharp, and D. Circosta.

The play, a turn-of-the-century family chronicle, presented events in a Norwegian-American household in San Francisco, as recorded in Katrin's (Brenda T. Galford) diary. The plot revolved around the record of Mama's (Sue Withers) bank account. Class Will

I, Sondra Nelson, do hereby will my ability to behave in band class to Dwight Diller in hopes that no one will get hit with as many spit-wads as I did.

I, Karen Galford, do hereby will my ability to work math problems to Mr. McNeel. If he has another student as brainy as I was, he'll need it.

I, Don Jackson, will my height to Tommy Michael in hopes that one day he will become captain of the team.

I, Betty Mann, being of very unsound mind do hereby prove it by willing to Vicki Sharp my one great ability. I don't know what it is but maybe she can use it anyway.

I, Charlotte Ann Reed, will my nights to Jack Nelson hoping he will have as much fun as I had.

I, Carolyn Vandevender, will my patience to whoever has office 6th period next year for waiting on Coach Friel to make out his absence slip.

I, Don Circosta, will to Sally Rose my ability to get out of work on the Annual Staff. Believe me, she needs it.

I, Delmos Barb, hereby do will my ability to do push-ups to Bobby Beverage and George Broce for they will need it in football practice.

I, Effie Underwood, will to Shirley Dean my low grades in senior English, in hope that, she can do better next year than I did this year.

I, Sue Withers, will the two most stubborn, most hard-headed girls in Marlinton High School as cheerleaders for 1964 to Charlotte Sharp and Vicki Moore so that they will know exactly what I had to put up with.

Drives Herb's car everywhere.

J. R. Dunbrack, a small, short lad,
Really drives that car of his like "mad."

Charlotte Reed is light indeed
But more proposals she does not need.

Sam McCarty, who always does his best
Has set an example for all the rest.

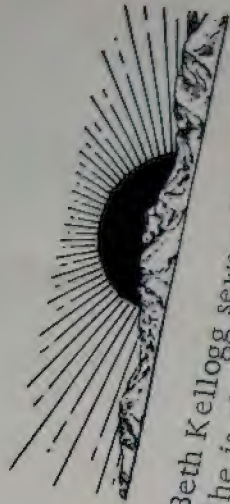

t need.

When you see Sidney,
Carolyn Vandevener
is the quiet kind
she's not far behind.

Pat Sharp who was once a Gay,
Beside her "hubby" she'll always stay.

Beth Kellogg sews a fine seam
She is always on the beam.

Effie Underwood is small and petite,
We all think she is very sweet.

Sue Sparks is tall and strong
She says she won't be a "Sparks" very long.

Sondra Nelson, we would say
Was the star of the senior play.

Remembered

Attie Shelton, who is as cute as a bug.
Could trample the boys like fleas in a rug.

Mr. Miller, whom we call Clark
Thinks that life is but a lark.

Clarence Tyree is a happy guy,
It won't be long till the stock comes by.

William Perry is known as Billy.
Whenever he's seen he's acting silly.

Jerry Sharp is quite a chap
For him, in football, we did clap.

Brenda Galford, an industrious gal,
Would make anyone a real fine pal.

Ronnie Cleek, who drives a blue car
Really thinks he's quite a star.

...drives a blue car
...quite a hat.

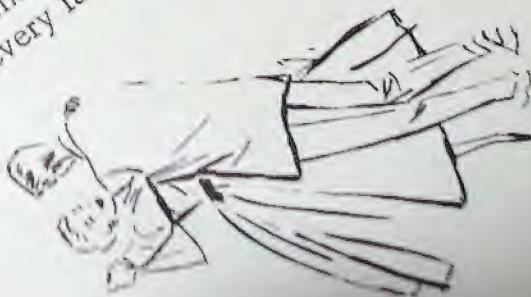

Harold VanReenen, known as "Hum"
Would make anyone quite a chum.

Diane Wooddell Buzzard, we all agree,
Has already received her M. R. S. Degree.

Herman Thomas is very hep,
He knows every latest dance step.

David Galford, a friendly, jolly lad
Seems to be diving all the girls mad.

Sue Withers is a cute little nick
And to the team she will surely tick.

Tomorrow

Phyllis Friel is our pin-up queen
A prettier girl you have never seen.

Brenda T. Galford, now all alone
Wishes Bob were here at home.

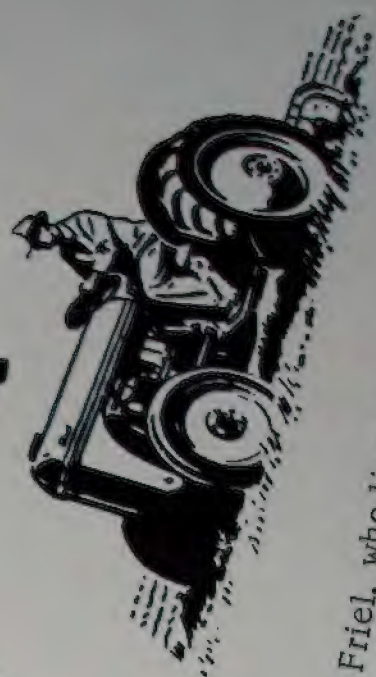

Sandy Anderson is dainty and light
When Gay is mentioned her heart takes flight.

Doug Sharp, who is lean and lank
Has made several trips to Green Bank.

Harry Kelley, a football star,
We all believe that he'll go far.

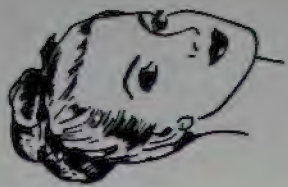

Kermit Friel, who lives on a farm,
Has lots of poise and charm.

and blonde

Kermit Friel, who lives on a farm,
Has lots of poise and charm.

Charlotte Lovelace is blue-eyed and blonde
Of the Gum boy she is very fond.

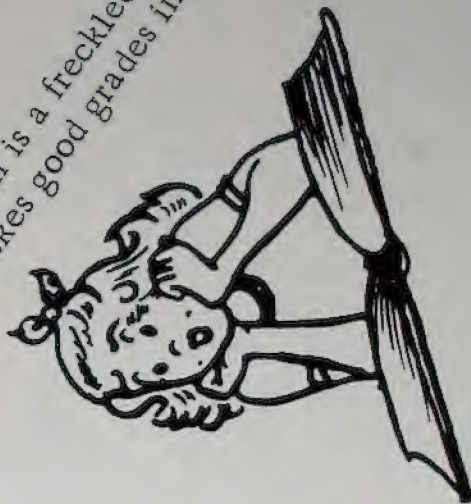

We heard David Lovelace say,
"I hate to work but love to play!"

Linda Sharp is quite sincere,
We all think that she's a dear.

Betty Mann is a freckled lass
She makes good grades in every class.

Jean Burr never makes a fuss
As a basketball player she rates "A plus."

Charlotte Lovelace has nailed Ray
And with him she will always stay.

Class

In the year 1959 eighty-one "green freshmen" entered the halls of Marlinton High School. We were so scared it took us all year to get settled, and to help us we chose the following leaders:

Karen Galford-President

Richard Morgan-Vice President

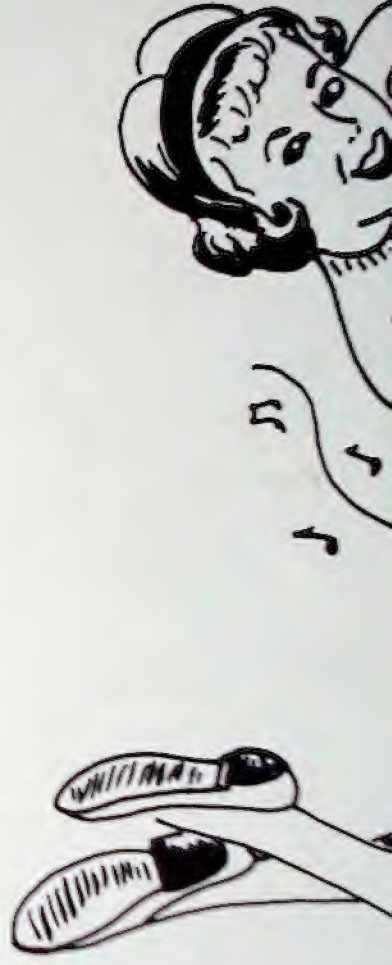

Paul Workman-Secretary

Sandy Anderson-Treasurer

We finally made it through the initiation and the rest of the year with the help of Mr. Wooddell and Mrs. Killingsworth.

We entered our sophomore year a whole lot wiser and with a great feeling of superiority as we got to do the initiating this year. The seniors were our idols and we couldn't wait to be in their shoes. To get us there, we chose Richard Morgan as our President; Paul Workman, Vice President; Blix McNeill, Secretary; Delmos Barb, Treasurer. We cannot, however, take all the credit. Without Mr. Brill and Mrs. Currence we probably wouldn't be much farther along the way. We were really looking forward to summer vacation that year because the subjects seemed to be getting harder.

History

Our junior year was one of our busiest. We were more composed and confident than ever before. The officers we selected that year were: Paul Workman, President; Richard Morgan, Vice President; Delmos Barb, Secretary; Blix McNeill, Treasurer. Mrs. Moore and Mr. Francis McElwee were our sponsors. It was during this year that many of us received our class rings. Our first big thrill as upperclassmen was presenting the class play, "Mama" directed by Mrs. Moore. Other activities included the junior-senior banquet and that memorable junior prom.

The year we had all been waiting for had finally arrived. We were now THE SENIORS! With Bill McNeill as President, Richard Morgan as Vice President, Sue Withers as Secretary, and Sandy Anderson as Treasurer we began the last year of preparation for the game of life. With the help of Mr. Charles McElwee and Mrs. Bailey, our sponsors, and Miss Ruckman, our yearbook advisor, we worked on the senior play, our own Marlintonian, the selection of our colleges and jobs, and the many other worries we thought were more important than anyone else's. There are few of us looking forward to summer vacation this year because we know that we will never again be a part of the joyous events of the high school years. Although we got on the teachers' nerves more than any other class, we feel there will never be another quite like it. We know that these years have been the best of our lives and we will always be grateful to those who have pushed us on and made it possible for us to graduate in this most important year, 1963, the year of the West Virginia Centennial. Before we go we wish to say:

Thanks to all the teachers
Who, we know, have had no rest;
We're very glad you "hounded" us
And made us do our best.

Although because of homework
We sometimes made a fuss;
There'll never be a greater class
In all the world to us.

The play, a turn-of-the-century family chronicle, presented events in a Norwegian-American household in San Francisco, as recorded in Katrin's (Brenda T. Galford) diary. The plot revolved around the record of Mama's (Sue Withers) bank account. Other members of the cast were: Papa, Paul Workman; Dagmar, Beth Kellogg; Christine, Christine Sharp; Mr. Hyde, Doug Sharp; Nels, Blix McNeill; Aunt Trina, Sandy Anderson; Aunt Jenny, Karen Galford; Aunt Sigrid, Patty Sharp; Uncle Chris, Delmo Barb; and Mr. Thorkelson, Don Circosta.
